

FAIRPLAY RULES & CHARGES

Carsharing only works if we all work together.

Flex is based on fair play and mutual respect. It is important for all vehicles to be returned on time, in a clean state and at least one third refueled.

The next customer will be very thankful.

7 simple fair play rules

- Before starting off, check the vehicle for damage. Immediately report any damage to our Flex-Servicecenter. This is the only way to guarantee that you will not be held accountable for any damage noted by the next customer.
- Return your Flex car to the pick-up location on time and make sure the fuel level is above one third
- Your Flex customer card is for personal use only. Don't hand it over to anyone else
- Clean any stains/dirt you may have caused and remove all waste
- All vehicles are non-smoking vehicles
- When transporting animals, use an appropriate crate. If necessary, clean and air the vehicle before returning it
- Report if Flex reserved parking spaces are blocked
