

INFORMATION NOTICE ON COOKIES

CFL Mobility cares about their customers.

Therefore, the protection of your personal data is a priority for us and for each entity of the CFL Group that processes your personal data.

This notice provides you with the necessary information and explains how we collect, use, share, store and protect your personal information. It also informs you of your rights and how to exercise them.

1. Who is the data controller?

CFL Mobility, established and having its registered office in L-1616 Luxembourg, 9, place de la Gare and registered with the Registre de Commerce et des Sociétés (Luxembourg) under the number B213407 is the controller of the personal data concerning you that we process.

As such, we are responsible for how we collect, use, share, store and protect your personal data.

2. What types of cookies are used and for what purposes?

When you browse the CFL Mobility site, we receive information relating to this browsing by using cookies. The types of cookies we use are as follows:

| |
| Necessary cookies |
| The processing of necessary cookies is based on our recognised legitimate interest. Necessary cookies help to make our website usable by enabling basic functions such as page navigation and access to secure areas of the website. The website cannot function properly without these cookies. |
| Preference cookies |
| Preference cookies allow a website to remember information that changes the way the website behaves or displays, such as your preferred language or the region you are located in. |
| Statistical cookies |
| Statistical cookies help website owners, by collecting and reporting information anonymously, to understand how visitors interact with websites. |
| Marketing cookies |
| Marketing cookies are used to track visitors through the websites. The aim is to display advertisements that are relevant and interesting to the individual user and therefore more valuable to third party publishers and advertisers. |
